

Our Expectations

At All Times

Look after yourself physically.

Plan your time effectively to manage your workload.

Find time to relax and have interests outside of the classroom.

At School

Hold yourselves to high standards and expectations.

Arrive at lessons and registration on time.

Wear full school uniform correctly.

Use respectful language.

Cooperate with staff and other adults.

Lead by example and create good role models for younger students.

Accept responsibility for behaviour.

Report any instances of bullying, including cyberbullying, to a teacher or other appropriate adult.

Be truthful and learn from mistakes.

Eat any and all food purchased in school in the area designated by the point of sale – food brought from home should be consumed in the Annexe or Cohen Playground.

Conduct yourselves safely around the school buildings and take a sensible approach to placement of bags.

Use mobile phones only in designated areas.

In The Community

Be an ambassador for the school.

Take pride when representing your school in sports fixtures, concerts and other events.

Be respectful to other members of the community in your words and actions.

Behave appropriately when outside school.

In Lessons

Be actively engaged in your learning.

Respond positively to feedback given by staff.

Enter classrooms in an orderly fashion.

Follow the seating plan as directed by staff.

Have all equipment required for lessons, including books, writing implements and planners.

Allow others to learn without interruptions.

Listen to the ideas of others and work co-operatively.

Value others and the contributions they make to lessons.

Care for the classroom, resources and the property of others.

Online

Use ICT in accordance with the school policy.

Be mindful of your digital footprint and THINK before you post or send messages or images.

Use mobile phones and other devices appropriately.

Be responsible online and respect the integrity of staff and other adults within the school community.
